FASHION FILM FESTIVAL
CHICAGO ANNOUNCES
FILMS IN COMPETITION
FOR 2016 FILM FESTIVAL

By Charles Davidson, July 2, 2016

CHICAGO, IL — Embarking on its fifth year of celebrating independent fashion film and the artists who create them, the Fashion Film Festival Chicago (FFFC) announced late yesterday the 59 films selected for participation in this year's Festival competition. The selected short films were curated from among more than 1200 submissions which hail from 86 countries.

"We are thrilled to be in a position to share the works of these exciting and talented filmmakers," said Patsy Campbell, Director of the Fashion Film Festival Chicago. "Fashion film is itself an emerging genre, and to be able to champion the pioneers of this new creative concept in filmmaking is not only an honor but a joy."
